Ian joined the squad in October 2011 after doing his own thing for many years in athletics. He is partially blind and was trying to make his best efforts of making the Paralympics in London in 2012 over 800m, so he approached Nick to improve his running and performances. He has improved signifacantly with a changed 800m program. He had his first start in the pros at Maryborough and made the final finishing 6th.

He runs with the Ringwood Athletic Club

He is eligible for Novice events and Veteran events.

In his last season he competed in the IPC World Championships in the 800m and also the 1500m where he ran a PB to finish 5th.

Ian moved to Japan where he now continues some distance running.
